   - Summary of Activities
Given the ongoing market uncertainties, direct support is essential to maintain capacity.

Individual projects or PoAs serve as the most solid basis to provide understanding and capacity.

Support to be provided directly on the ground on a regional basis.

Development of standardized baseline will be a key factor to reduce cost and facilitate the engagement to CDM.

Prioritization criteria

1. Location (Country)

2. Ground-breaking

3. Co-benefits

4. Likelihood of success
1. Stakeholder engagement

| Identification of key stakeholders in the region |
| Creation of capacity in the region by providing CDM background and showcasing successful stories |
| Promote RCC Bogotá |

| RCC Bogotá Regional Directory |
| Relevant stakeholders in Latin America |
| (Co-)organization of workshops and training sessions, as well as participation in relevant events |
2. Standardized baseline support

Identification of priority areas for the development of SB, based on the emission profile of given countries

Direct support to relevant institutions in countries for the development and submission of proposed SB

Identification of specific project activities and programmes that would benefit from such standardized baselines

Develop country specific analyses

Support SBL in Latin America

List of possible projects/programmes that can apply the approved SBs
Identify CDM project activities and CDM programmes of activities that are at some stage of the CDM cycle (prior consideration, validation, registration, verification, request for issuance) and require technical and procedural support.

Analysis of the current status of the CDM projects and programmes in the region.

Provide direct support to the identified CDM project activities and programmes.

CDM Projects and Programmes supported by RCC Bogotá and successfully moved from one stage to the next one.
4. CDM policy input

Provide policy input to the CDM Executive Board by suggesting improvements in the CDM regulatory framework, methodologies and guidelines taking into account the Latin American context.

Summary of the feedback from relevant stakeholders in the region related to the CDM regulatory framework.
